PICK-UP LOCATIONS OUTSIDE OF REYKJAVIK

For many of the tours, the journey starts as soon as you leave Reykjavik. However, Arctic Adventures offers pick-up service from few additional pick up points located along the driving route for some of our tours. Those locations are often available for pick up for an extra fee, you will get further information about this when booking one of the tours that fall under this exception to our pick up list.

THE PICK-UP PROCESS

The pick-up process starts with our guides/drivers preparing the cars and printing the pick-up lists of the tours. The routes they take each time is dependent on how many pick-ups there are for each tour as well as where those pick-up points are located. It might take up to 30 min for our guides to reach your pick-up point, so please wait patiently for us to arrive. It is very important that you are ready at your pick-up point from the start of the pick-up time in order not to miss our guides when they arrive. Optimal is for you to wait outside at the pick-up point so that our guides can easily find you upon the arrival. If the weather is cold or rainy, it is okay to wait inside the lobby of our hotel/hostel pick-up points, but please keep a look out for our guides and cars. We wish to do all we can to make the pick-up process as smooth as possible, and we hope you will do the same.

WHAT TO LOOK OUT FOR WHILE WAITING FOR PICK-UP

The first thing you might spot while waiting for your pick-up is our pick-up vehicles. At Arctic Adventures we value small group experiences for all our tours, and therefore our pick-up vehicles will never be bigger than a minibus for up to 19 passengers. Most of our cars are white or silver/grey, with our logo placed on the side doors.

Other signs to look out for while waiting for your pick-up are our guides that handle the pick-up process. They will be wearing clothing marked with our logo, and in addition, they will also be bringing a small sign with the tour name and our logo if they are outside of the car.
